Douglas County Voting Numbers

ROSEBURG, Ore. – As of today, Douglas County has received 23,491 ballots for a turnout of 31.38%. Douglas County has 74,854 eligible voters. Douglas County Clerk Patricia Hitt says it is now too late to mail your ballot, and voters should drop ballots in official drop boxes to ensure their vote is counted.

Ballots need to be placed in an official ballot drop box by 8:00 p.m. January 23, 2018. Ballots put in one of the official ballot drop boxes located throughout the county do not need postage.

Voters must be sure to sign the ballot return envelope prior to dropping in a ballot box, or their vote cannot be counted. If your signature has changed, you will need to fill out a new voter registration card so that your current signature on file.

If the Douglas County Election's Office has any questions about your signature, they will contact you. If you are no longer able to sign, please contact the election's office for instructions prior to returning your ballot. In Oregon, a power of attorney does not qualify as a voter's signature.

For more information including a sample ballot, instructions, etc., please visit the Douglas County Clerk's Office.

Voters' pamphlets are compiled and distributed by the Secretary of State's office. An electronic and audio version can be found at the Secretary of State's website. For more information on Ballot Measure 101, please visit the Secretary of State's website, also.
